SPY CAMP

SPY SEARCH... NOW ACTIVE

Calling all budding secret agents. The following is a confidential message from Spy Camp HQ. Read on for instructions about one mission you can't afford to miss...

The search starts here and there's no time to lose. Could you be the best spy in the business? Find out when Spy Camp opens its doors for the first time in Oct 2011. Spy Camp is being held at Disneyland® Paris and will offer essential training to young agents who believe they've got what it takes.

Forget Mission Impossible, this is Mission Incredible!

Open to boys and girls aged 8 to 16, this exciting new experience will take would-be agents through a series of challenges to test their nerve, determination and ability to solve problems.

READ CAREFULLY...

On arrival 'mission packs' will be issued and during a top secret meeting additional information will be presented.

PRIZE FOR THE BEST AGENT

The instructors will be looking for the best spy, someone who has all the necessary skills and attributes This person will be invited along with 3 of their friends to our Spy HQ somewhere in the heart of Buckinghamshire for a spy experience.

Trainees will be in double-oh-heaven as they learn the insider skills, tricks and gadgets that agents use in the field to overcome the challenges they meet.

The training is divided into two fun sessions, beginning in the morning with phase one and graduating to phase two in the afternoon. Still with us? Stay attentive. There's more...

The reward for those who complete the course is an invitation to the Passing Out Ceremony and an evening party, when certificates of achievement will be handed out to successful candidates. However, also be prepared as you may be chosen for immediate action...

Spy Games has an excellent track record in running events for children of all ages. Drawing from this experience the expert coaching team will run a series of thrilling activities to give young people an unforgettable memory!

Want to know how to crack a code? Or how to sneak through a laser room undetected? Report for training at Spy Camp to learn all this and more.

Children will be pitting their wits against the clock in a series of activities to enhance their abilities as undercover agents. Who's the odd one out? Why is the mysterious brief case so important? Who can react fastest? Who can beat the trap? Who can complete the task and find the answers? Only by entering Spy Camp will budding agents learn if they have got what it takes to be a top agent.

Are you the super spy we're looking for? Please respond as soon as possible. This is Spy Camp HQ, over and out...

SPY GAMES

Background File!

Spy Camp for kids has been specially devised by UK-based Spy Games, the world's leading espionage-themed events company. Spy Games was set up in 2001 and since then has been providing fun entertainment and exciting activities to businesses, adults and children.

Whether it is running a spy day for 1000 Russians in Turkey or a birthday party for an 8 year old, Spy Games has a history of innovation giving people fun events in a safe environment

Blue Peter

The Spy Games 'special agents' spent two days training the Blue Peter presenters for a mission that was shown on the programme in January 2010 (see video link below). With their training they managed to complete their assignment and uncover a double-agent but how good are you? <http://www.spy-games.com/video/spybpct.wmv>

In the UK Spy Camp sessions for kids have been an outstanding success, attracting hundreds of children each year. In 2010, Spy Camp expanded nationally when it was adopted by many schools throughout the UK as part of its after-school activity programme and, as international demand grew, Spy Camp events were even staged for children in Greece.

For youngsters seeking ever more imaginative outdoor group activities for their summer holidays and weekends, Spy Camp is a prime destination.
